

RIGHTS AND WRONGS

A Constitution Day Conference at SF State
September 18–19, 2017

J. Paul Leonard Library & Cesar Chavez Student Center · Free to All

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

“Crimes of Liberty: The Origins of the Constitution and the Unfinished Business of Abolition”
Robin D.G. Kelley (UCLA)

“What Good are Courts? Travel Bans, National Security, and the Mixed Promise of the Law”
Shirin Sinnar (Stanford University)

Sponsored by the College of Liberal & Creative Arts and cosponsored by the College of Ethnic Studies, College of Extended Learning, Division of Graduate Studies, History Department, History Students Association, Labor Archives and Research Center, Paul K. Longmore Institute on Disability, Pasker Chair in History, Political Science Department, School of Public Affairs and Civic Engagement, Sociology and Sexuality Studies Department, and Women and Gender Studies Department

For a complete list of speakers and schedule, visit history.sfsu.edu/content/constitution-day