

HISTORY

Curriculum Vitae

ARTURO R. ARRIETA

EDUCATION

M.A., History, January 2004, San Francisco State University, San Francisco CA.
World History (Major Field), Latin America (Minor Field)

B.A., History, May 1994, San Francisco State University, San Francisco CA.
United States History (Major Field), Modern Europe (Minor Field)

COURSEWORK

History

- World History To 1500
- World History Since 1500
- The Historiography of World History
- Ancient Egypt
- History of Africa
- Modern Africa
- Pre-Modern China
- Modern China
- Gender in East Asian Societies
- Archaic and Classical Greece
- Hellenistic Greece
- History of the Islamic World 500-1500
- History of the Islamic World 1500-Present
- Colonial Latin America
- Latin America: The National Period
- History of Mexico
- Central America and the Caribbean
- History of Brazil

History (cont.)

- Intellectual History of Latin America
- Journeys in the New World
- U.S. History 1916-1945
- U.S. History 1945 - Present
- Religion in America
- The Red Scare
- History of California
- Recent European History
- The Russian Revolution

Related Courses

- World Literature
- Government and Politics of South Asia
- Modernization and the Third World
- American Literature
- The Post-Modern Revolution
- Humanism and Mysticism

HONORS AND AFFILIATIONS

Graduate Distinguished Scholar Award

History Department, San Francisco State University, 2004

Member

World History Association, 2002-Present

Member

Phi Alpha Theta History Honors Society, 2001-Present

Cum Laude

Graduation with Honors, B.A., History, San Francisco State University, 1994

THESIS

World History in Global Perspective: Large-Scale Periodization and Interregional History During the Formative Period, 1000 – 200 B.C.E.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Lecturer, San Francisco State University, Since 2005

Currently teaching survey courses in United States and World History including U.S. to 1877, U.S. since 1877, World History to 1500, and World History since 1500; responsible for developing course syllabi, preparing and presenting course lectures and visual presentations, providing student assistance during office hours and through E-mail and Blackboard website, grading papers and exams, and attending faculty meetings and workshops.

Lecturer, Dominican University, Spring 2007

Currently teaching the courses Ancient and Medieval Civilizations and The History of Mexico: Aztecs to the Present; responsible for developing course syllabi, preparing and presenting course lectures, organizing group discussions, providing student assistance during office hours and through E-mail and Blackboard website, and grading papers and exams.

Teaching Assistant, San Francisco State University, 2000-2003

Assisted in two sections of World History To 1500 and two sections of World History Since 1500; responsibilities included grading papers and exams, preparing and presenting visual presentations and lectures, and generally assisting students.

LANGUAGES

Conversant in Spanish

CO CURRICULAR

Contributor to the article "La Batalla Por El Banco Central" in the Mexican academic journal, Historia Mexicana, April-Junio 2000, Vol. XLIX, Núm. 4, (631-672).

Participant at San Francisco State University's Annual History Forum (Spring 2001—Latin America: History, Society and Culture); commentator for session "Creations of Identity."

TRAVEL

Extensive throughout northern India, Nepal, Thailand, and Vietnam; frequent travel to Maya historical sites in southern Mexico and Aztec sites in Mexico City.