

Curriculum Vita – Marc Stein - Jamie and Phyllis Pasker Professor of History

Contact Information: History Department, San Francisco State University, Humanities Building 263, 1600 Holloway Ave., San Francisco, CA 94132, marcs@sfsu.edu

Education/Employment:

OutHistory Director, 2023-Present	Colby College (Visiting Assistant Prof.), 1996-98
Queer Pasts Coeditor, 2020-Present	Bryn Mawr College (Mellon Postdoc. Fellow), 1995-96
San Francisco State Univ. (Full Professor), 2014-Present	Ph.D., History, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1994
York Univ. (Assistant, Associate, Full Professor), 1998-2014	B.A. (Phi Beta Kappa), History, Wesleyan Univ., 1985

Select Publications:

Rethinking the Gay and Lesbian Movement (Routledge, 2012; 2nd ed. 2023).

“‘The World’s Most Arrested Lesbian’: Corona Rivera and the New York Gay Activists Alliance, 1970-1972,” Queer Pasts (Alexander St./ProQuest, Apr. 2024).

“LGBT Direct Action Bibliography, Chronology, and Inventory, 1965-74,” OutHistory and Queer Pasts, Oct. 2023, <https://outhistory.org/exhibits/show/direct>.

“Sodomites and Gender Transgressors in 1840s New York,” Queer Pasts (Alexander St./ProQuest, Nov. 2022)

Queer Public History: Essays on Scholarly Activism (U. California Press, 2022)

“Students, Sodomy, and the State: LGBT Campus Struggles in the 1970s,” Law and Social Inquiry 48.2 (May 2023): 531-560 (published online Apr. 2022).

“Power, Politics, and Race in the 1968 Philadelphia Study of Prison Sexual Violence,” Queer Pasts (Alexander St./ProQuest), Nov. 2021.

“Teaching and Researching the History of Sexual Politics at San Francisco State, 1969-1970,” California History 98.4 (Winter 2021): 2-29.

“Heterosexual Inversions: Satire, Parody, and Comedy in the 1950s and 1960s,” Heterosexual Histories, ed. R. Davis and M. Mitchell (NYU Press, 2021), 195-224.

The Stonewall Riots: A Documentary History (NYU Press, 2019).

“Law and Politics,” Routledge History of Queer America, ed. D. Romesburg (Routledge, 2018), 315-330.

Guest Editor, “U.S. Homophile Internationalism,” Journal of Homosexuality 64.7 (2017).

“Canada and Canadians in the U.S. Homophile Press,” Journal of Homosexuality 64.7 (2017): 963-990.

“Race, Class, and the U.S. Supreme Court’s Doctrine of Heteronormative Supremacy,” in Connexions: Histories of Race and Sex in North America, ed. J. Brier, J. Downs, and J. Morgan (U. Illinois Press, 2016), 59-81.

“Historical Landmarks and Landscapes of LGBTQ Law,” in LGBTQ America: A Theme Study of LGBTQ History, ed. M. Springate (National Park Service, 2016), 1-47.

“Sexual Rights and Wrongs: Teaching the U.S. Supreme Court’s Greatest Gay and Lesbian Hits,” in Understanding and Teaching U.S. GLBT History, ed. L. Rupp and S. Freeman (U. Wisconsin Press, 2014), 238-53.

“Canonizing Homophile Sexual Respectability: Archives, History, and Memory,” Radical History Review, no. 120 (Fall 2014): 52-73.

Sexual Injustice: Supreme Court Decisions from Griswold to Roe (UNC Press, 2010).

Editor-in-Chief, Encyclopedia of LGBT History in America, 3 vols. (Scribners, 2003).

City of Sisterly and Brotherly Loves: Lesbian and Gay Philadelphia, 1945-72 (U. Chicago Press, 2000; 2nd edition with new preface, Temple U. Press, 2004).

Select Honors, Awards, and Service:

Organization of American Historians Vice President, 2024-25

Marcus Transformative Research Award, San Francisco State Univ., 2024-25

Academic Senate, San Francisco State University, 2021-23.

Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada Insight Grant, 2014-16.

Faculty of Graduate Studies Teaching Award, York Univ., 2010.

Chair (2013-15) and Member (2015-16), Organization of American Historians Committee on the Status of LGBTQ Historians and Histories, 2013-16.

Member, LGBTQ Historians Task Force of the American Historical Association, 2009-15.

Audre Lorde Prize for Best Article in LGBT History, Committee on Lesbian and Gay History